

Business partnership with ANA Business Jet Inc.

As part of its core business focused on supporting the global expansion of Japanese companies, Kambara International has launched new services, including special trip planning, business executive exchange events, wellness support, and more, with the aim of adding unique value to the global branding efforts of Japanese businesses.

We are pleased to announce that Kambara International has entered into a business partnership agreement with ANA Business Jet Inc. to further enhance these services.